CAMPFIRE TALES

CAMPFIRE TALES

Two Professors. One Campfire. Infinite Imagination.

Gather 'round... It's Storytime - but not as you know it!

THE SHOW

Welcome to Campfire Tales, a wildly imaginative, laugh-out-loud, and heart-warming journey into the world of traditional folk tales - reimagined with live music, original songs, and a touch of beautifully bonkers clowning.

Two travelling mischief-makers, Prof. Jigget and Prof. Tebleton, spin timeless tales brimming with mystery, magic, and mayhem - taking families on a sonic adventure into their imagination.

But this isn't just about listening – it's about joining in. Families are invited to share ideas, spark conversations, and become part of the story.

With songs you'll hum on the way home, and moments of nonsense that leave everyone giggling, Campfire Tales is a celebration of the imagination, togetherness, and the ancient joy of storytelling.

RUN TIMES

The performance lasts 40 minutes and includes two stories.

AGE GUIDANCE

The show is suitable for 5 years +

VENUES & PRESENTATION

Campfire Tales is performed by a storyteller and a musician/singer.

The set consists of a 2m tall stall for a keyboard, and a selection of suitcases and small props.

The piece is suitable for a variety of spaces, both indoors and outdoors - including libraries, museums, studio spaces, community centres, parks, community gardens, and forest schools,

For indoor spaces, we provide prop campfires.

For outdoor spaces, we can either provide the campfires, the venue can provide the campfires, or the performance can have no campfire.
